

Report of
The Adjutant General
of the State of Florida
FOR THE YEAR 1921

T. J. APPLEYARD, PRINTER, TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

MILITARY DEPARTMENT, STATE OF FLORIDA,
OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL.

St. Augustine, Fla., January 31, 1922.

From: The Adjutant General,

To: The Honorable Cary A. Hardee, Governor, Tallahassee, Florida.

Subject: Annual Report of the Military Department of the State of Florida.

The following report of the Military Department of the State of Florida, for the year 1921, is herewith submitted:

UNORGANIZED MILITIA.

The estimated strength of the Reserve Militia of the State of Florida is 210,000.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

On December 31, 1921, the National Guard of Florida was as follows:

State Staff Corps and Departments.....	6
Line Officers	75
Enlisted Men	1469
Total.....	1550

This shows an increase during the year 1921, of forty-one officers and six hundred, seventy-three men.

NATIONAL GUARD RESERVE.

Commissioned Officers	4
Total.....	4

On December 31, 1920, the Florida National Guard consisted of the prescribed Staff Corps and Department; eight Companies of Infantry; one Headquarters Company; one Supply Company; one Machine Gun Company and one Medical Detachment.

On December 31, 1921, the Florida National Guard consisted of the prescribed Staff Corps and Department; one complete Regiment of Infantry with sixteen units; one Motor Transport Company; one Motorcycle Company and three Field Artillery Batteries; making a total of twenty-two organizations as compared with twelve companies at the end of the previous year.

EFFICIENCY.

At the present time, the Florida National Guard is a very efficient organization. The majority of the Officers and Non-commissioned Officers are men who have seen much service, not only in the last war, but in previous activities, consequently the companies are better trained than ever before. All of the companies are thoroughly equipped and are ready for active duty at any time.

INSPECTIONS.

Federal Armory Inspection of the various organizations in the Florida National Guard was made in February, 1921, by Colonel J. M. Kimbrough, the Regular Army Instructor for the State of Georgia. The companies were found to be in very fair condition and both officers and men were commended by the instructor.

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT.

The Annual School and Camp of Instruction was held at the State Camp Grounds, Black Point, August 2nd to August 21st. The schedule for work prepared by Major Walter Moore, Instructor, and approved by the commanding officer of the Fourth Corps Area, was carried out in a very satisfactory manner and owing to the fine weather, no time was lost. The camp was attended by the entire Regiment of Infantry and the Motor Transport Company. The number of men present exceeded the number anticipated and estimated for, by from twenty to thirty men, which is a noteworthy fact, as the attendance seldom comes up to expectations. The improvement in the troops from day to day was most remarkable. Strict discipline was enforced and the conduct of the men good. Except as headquarters for the guard, there was scarcely any need for the guard house.

The Coast Artillery Company proceeded to Fort Scriven, Ga., for a four day school and fifteen day camp of instruction. The men returned to their homes, from both of these camps, pleased with results and full of enthusiasm, consequently there were many new enlistments and a marked increase in the enrollment, facts indicative of the success of the encampments.

CALLED TO THE AID OF THE CIVIL AUTHORITIES.

During the encampment at the State Camp Grounds, the civil authorities of Duval County called for aid in protecting a negro being held in the county jail, charged with murder. By order of the Governor, troops (one hundred, twenty-nine men) with a machine gun detachment were sent to the jail, arriving within one hour after the receipt of the call, and remained on duty four days, the number being decreased each day. As to the manner in which this duty was performed, attention is called to the statement made by R. E. Merritt, Sheriff of Duval County, and also to the statement of the Camp Commander in his report. (Attention is called to the report of the Camp Commander, giving in detail, the work done in camp).

NATIONAL MATCHES.

The State furnished one National Guard Team and one Civilian Team for the National Rifle Matches that were held, August 27th, to September 22nd, inclusive, at Camp Perry, Ohio. Major Chester H. Wilson was detailed as Captain of the National Guard Team. (The team work of both teams is given elsewhere in this report.) The Florida teams did good work, improving on their previous records, and the captains are commended for their handling of the men and the showing made.

STATE CAMP GROUNDS AND RIFLE RANGES.

The State Camp Grounds and Rifle Ranges, which were used by the Federal Government during the world war, were turned back to the State in June, 1921. In compliance with our request that some of the buildings that had been erected by the Federal Government on the State land be left for our uses, about two hundred of them were given to us. They include barracks, school buildings, mess halls (with refrigerators and ranges), buildings with full plumbing equipment such as shower baths and so forth, cottages, truck sheds, warehouses and such other buildings as will be needed for the National Guard, Regular Troops and Civilian Clubs when on duty for mobilization, instruction or rifle practice. The Federal Government also left one American LaFrance fire engine, one chemical engine and ample equipment for fire protection. The value of the property that was turned over to the State, not including the land, approximately totals $175,000.00, and gives us every thing that is necessary for taking care of, comfortably, at least five thousand troops. The Rifle Ranges, owing to neglect, were very much out of repair when received back by the State. However, we are receiving fairly ample funds from the War Department for the restoration of these ranges. During 1921, we received about $600.00 for repair work and a much larger sum is expected during 1922.

With the addition of about one hundred, fifty targets, we would have probably, the best equipped range in the United States and could expect a return of the National shoots to this range. Except for targets, we have already, far superior housing and other equipment to any other range, and are fairly well equipped with targets.

CAMP GROUNDS.

We have without doubt, one of the best located and naturally adapted camp grounds in the United States and we are improving it as rapidly as the appropriations will permit. This camp ground and target range is a source of pride to the Florida National Guard and would be to all of the citizens of the State of Florida if they would take the trouble to inspect it. The grounds are a natural park and can be utilized for park purposes by the people of the State. The camp is open to the public and all are invited to inspect it, and with a few reasonable restrictions, to make use of it. Including land and buildings, the total value of the camp grounds approximates one-half million dollars; is undoubtedly one of the very finest in the country, and should be viewed with pride by every citizen in the State.

STATE ARSENAL.

The Legislature of 1921 appropriated $40,000.00 for the repair of the St. Frances Barracks building that was injured by fire in 1915. The Legislature also requested our Senators and Congressmen to secure the transfer of the property by the War Department to the State of Florida. Senator Trammell introduced a bill for this purpose and all of our representatives worked very hard to secure the passage of this bill. At the date of this report, after hard work on the part of Senators Fletcher and Trammell, the bill has passed the Senate and Congressman Sears is urging its passage in the House of Representatives. It is expected that the building will be repaired during the year 1922.

The St. Frances Barracks property has been occupied under lease for the past sixteen years. The Federal Government leased the entire property to the State at the nominal rent of $1.00 per year, and thereby has saved the State many thousands of dollars that otherwise would have had to be spent, either for rent or for the erection of buildings necessary for the housing of the Military Department, and for the storage and care of the hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property that is furnished the State annually by the War Department.

STORE ROOMS AND OTHER BUILDINGS.

The store rooms generally, are in poor condition, but owing to lack of necessary appropriations, it has been impossible to make such needed repairs. The roofs of all buildings should be overhauled as soon as possible and all buildings should be painted. The plastering of store-rooms should be replaced with metal or wood ceilings.

GROUNDS

The grounds are in excellent condition.

RECORDS OF EX-SERVICE MEN.

The Service Records of all men who served in the World War, from Florida, should be published as soon as practicable. These records should give the town and county from which the men were enlisted, as well as other information. At present, the United States War Department has furnished the records of about ninety per cent of our men and will probably furnish the remainder within the coming year. A serious defect in the records being furnished is the failure to show the counties from which the men enlisted. Numerous requests have come in from organizations desiring lists of the men who went into the service from their respective counties, but as the records now stand, it would be impossible to furnish such lists. The State records will have to be made by going over each card, nearly forty-four thousand in all, and obtaining the counties by referring to a Postal Guide or some similar book of reference. Quite some time and money will have to be expended in perfecting such records.

The records furnished to date, by the War and Navy Departments, show approximately, the following number of men who served in the World War from Florida:

Army.

APPENDIX A.

Report of Ex-Service Men's Bureau, State of Florida:

From: W. S. Criswell, Chairman, Florida Ex-Service Men's Bureau.

To: The Adjutant General.

Subject: Report of the Activities of the Florida Ex-Service Men's Bureau During 1921.

The Florida Ex-Service Men's Bureau really started functioning in July, 1921.

At that time, through the earnest efforts of Major George F. Ahern, an office was established in the Old Bisee building, this city, where counsel and advice, or service of any kind was rendered ex-service men in distress or difficulty.

At that time the paramount problem in connection with securing justice for the ex-service men, who had claims, on a basis of disability or otherwise, was the matter of liaison between the bewildered claimant and the Government bureaus and officials. In other words men who had defied barb wire entanglements lost heart in many instances, in trying to fight their way through the red tape entanglements by which they are hedged away from the heart of the Nation.

Accordingly the Bureau had printed and distributed descriptive and informational posters, directing ex-service men claimants as to whom they should apply and as to what channels existed through which they might reach the ear of the government. One of these posters was sent to each postoffice in the State and they were distributed elsewhere and as generally and as far as it was possible. They accomplished a great deal of good and brought in a large number of claims and correspondence.

During the same month—July—1200 inquiries regarding the Citizens Military Training Camp, some by person and many by mail, were handled and answered by the office. Relief (as far as relief could be gotten), was given the applicants in need.

About this time the State Executive Committee of the Legion met in this city. General Lovell, State Adjutant General, met with them. In view of the fact that Jacksonville, being the largest city in the State, and being so situated that the heaviest incidence of trouble lodged in it, and in view of the further fact that a start on state-wide service had already been made—even though rather feeble—it was decided to use the State Fund for the maintenance of the State Bureau in Jacksonville.

This plan was formally embodied in a resolution which provided for the payment of $125.00 per month to the Bureau in Jacksonville, the other $25.00 per month to go to the State Adjutant of the American Legion.

Thus the Bureau started. On August 1st we moved to 44 Barnett building. We hired an ex-service man, Leo A. Waters, to conduct the office for us, paying him $75.00 per month State money and making up the other $25.00 per month out of the Legion. The Legion also put in $15.00 for emergency relief, making a total of $40.00 from the Legion. The office rent, $40.00 was also paid out of the State money.

On September 1st we turned the office over to the Clean-Up Squad and co-operated in every way possible in that work.

On October 1st Mr. Waters left to take up a more remunerative job. His place was taken by Mrs. Grace P. Thatcher, wife of a Legionnaire, and who has had 10 years experience in relief and welfare work.

Active co-operation was established between the Bureau and the local Red Cross and the local County Board of Charities, whereby relief of a material character was readily available for every bona fide applicant. Through the County Board of Charities we were also able to secure half-rate transportation for cases of that character.

Following is a list of the Bureau activities which gives a general idea of the scope of service rendered:

1. Information and advice, covering all kinds of cases and subjects.
2. Maintenance of employment bureau.
3. Securing certificates of lost discharges.
4. Notary service and preparation of affidavits.
5. Securing release of ex-service men from jail.
6. Medical and hospital assistance.
7. Detection of imposters and circulation of the State regarding them.
8. Squelching of fake schemes ostensibly for "Benefit of Disabled."
9. Furnishing of meals and lodgings.
10. Securing money from friends and relatives.

During the five months from July to December 31st, 1921, 774 distinct cases were handled. We are working our employed secretary over time and using up about one-half of the time of six or eight Legionnaires who haven't any better sense than to serve others for the sake of service.

In this connection I wish to name Maj. W. L. Carbine, who has worked faithfully for the interests of ex-service men, through the Bureau, without any compensation whatever except the satisfaction of service. He is now an employe of the Veterans' Bureau but is also acting as State Service Officer for the Legion.

Regarding the United States Veterans' Bureau in this city, it is with pleasure that I am able to report the most cordial co-operation. We work together splendidly.

I believe the Bureau, considering its limited funds, has delivered the goods. If service is conscientious effort, and working over-time, I know it has.

Respectfully submitted,

W. S. CRISWELL,

Chairman, Florida Ex-Service Men's Bureau.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST INFANTRY

FLORIDA NATIONAL GUARD

Jacksonville, Florida, December 15th, 1921.

From: The Commanding Officer, 154th Infantry, F. N. G.

To: The Adjutant General, State Arsenal, St. Augustine.

Subject: Report on August Encampment.

1. In compliance with General Order No. 14, A. G. O., State of Florida, 1921, the following report of the encampment of the Florida National Guard, at Camp Johnston, Florida, during the period August 2nd to August 21st, is submitted.

2. The camp proper was preceded by a four-day school of instruction which was attended by one or two officers and eight men of each of the units of the 1st Florida Infantry, together with three officers and fifteen men of the State Quartermaster's Detachment and eight men of the 121st Motor Transport Company. This four-day school of instruction was productive of most beneficial results in that men who attended the school were used later as instructors for the entire regiment. The inspector-instructor had been notified that three regular army officers and seven sergeants would be sent to the camp to assist in the instruction. These did not materialize. Therefore, it was necessary for the Commanding Officer and his staff to assist in instruction in the school. The work of Major Wilson, Regimental Machine Gun Officer, and Captain Coslick, is to be especially commended.

3. The regular camp of instruction began on August 6th and terminated on August 21st with the following units and organizations present:

Regimental Headquarters 1st Florida Infantry.

Col. Raymond C. Turck, Commanding.

Lt.-Col. Vivian B. Collins.

Major Chester H. Wilson, Reg. Machine Gun Officer.

Capt. Chas. H. Andress, Reg. Adjutant.

Seven officers of the State Staff Corps reported and were assigned to special duty as follows:

STATE STAFF.

Col. C. P. Lovell, A. G., as Camp Inspector.
 Major John L. Crary, Q. M. C., Camp Supply Officer.
 Major Walter H. Blackmear, I. G. D., as Camp Athletic Officer.
 Major Guy A. Klock, M. C., as Camp Surgeon.
 Capt. Geo. M. Coslick, O. D., as Range Officer.
 Capt. Geo. W. Bassett, J. A., as Judge Advocate.
 Capt. H. C. F. Dohm, Q. M. C., as Camp Quartermaster.

The total average present in camp for duty was sixty-five (65) officers and one thousand, eighty-three (1,083) enlisted men.

4. Drill and Instruction. The schedules of instruction prepared by the Inspector-Instructor for Infantry, Machine Gun Companies, Howitzer Company and Medical Detachment were closely followed out although somewhat modified as to hours. Because of the intense heat, softness of the men, and the intensive training schedule put on during the day most of the evening lectures and exercises were discontinued giving the men full liberty after retreat. Intensive training was given the men, in school of the soldier, squad, platoon and company. No battalion or regimental manouvers were attempted although one firing problem, with a battalion supported by thirty-seven m.m. guns was carried out. Battalion or regimental parades or reviews were held daily. Good results from the intensive training was apparent. The regiment as it came into Camp was very ragged, but on the day of the final review before the Governor of Florida, as it swung past the reviewing stand in raincoats it presented a most creditable appearance.

5. Machine Gun Training. A special report, by the Regimental Machine Gun Officer, of machine gun activities is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "A." The recommendation of the Machine Gun Officer that a one thousand inch range be made permanent equipment at Camp Johnston is strongly endorsed.

6. Rifle Range. The report of the Range Officer on rifle firing is attached marked Exhibit "B." Captain Coslick's recommendations are concurred in, especially those referring to the placing of the range in first class condition before the next encampment.

7. The Quartermaster Department Operated Efficiently. No special report of the activities of this department has been received. The men were well fed. Schools for cooks and model kitchens were established. Meat component of rations was cut down and fresh vegetables and fruits substituted. The men were at all times satisfied with their mess.

8. Sanitation—Medical Department. Special report of the Regimental Surgeon is submitted, herewith, marked Exhibit "C." Much time was lost by reason of the vaccinations and inoculations. This should be done before the troops arrive in camp. That the regiment made a unique reputation in that of its available strength in camp, it was one hundred percent inoculated and vaccinated was due to a close co-operation between the Headquarters and the Medical Department and the efficient and prompt carrying out of sufficient orders.

9. Military Courtesy and Discipline. Military courtesy and military discipline were stressed from the beginning. The men were taught and compelled to dress, look, act and salute like snappy soldiers. So doing they began to feel that they were real soldiers and this was soon reflected in the work of the units.

10. Esprit and Morale. The growth of the Company, Battalion and Regimental esprit was noticeable from day to day. Friendly competition was keen. During the period of the camp, company spirit was soon demonstrated. Battalions were rapidly shaped into compact units and finally on the day of the review of the Regiment by the Governor of Florida, one could see that a new regiment had been born. As the men snapped past the reviewing stand in their raincoats one saw that every man was trying, that he had pride in his organization and he was doing his best to make a showing for his regiment. That the men had no work at night, that they were given plenty of liberty, and that truck train transportation was provided for them to and from the city was immensely valuable in keeping up morale. This camp was quite different from the old National Guard camp where soft, raw, untrained men were sent into a one or two week camp where they were overworked, underfed, unprovided with healthy amusements and finally sent home tired, sick, disgruntled, swearing never to get caught in a National Guard camp again. From this camp the men left singing and whistling and in better health than upon arrival, saying that they had had a wonderful time, already planning to come back next year and how they were going to carry away the cups and what they proposed next year to do to other companies or other battalions. At the present date, instead of the usual slump following camp, new recruits are coming in.

11. Uniform and Equipment. Efforts made to complete the equipment and to furnish each soldier with two complete uniforms. It is recommended that the special equipment required by Regimental Headquarters and the Headquarters Company be supplied as soon as practicable.

12. Athletics. The athletic programme was a valuable and most pleasant feature. Competition between the companies for the various cups was productive of wonderful results in promoting company spirit. Battalion baseball competition induced an intensive battalion spirit which welded the battalions into units and induced into each battalion a desire to excel in military work and all other battalion functions. Illustration of the cups donated for athletic competitions is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "D."

13. The troops had most excellent training in guard duty, due to the necessity for guarding the Duval County jail, in the City of Jacksonville, and on one occasion, the disposition of forces about the jail to repel a possible mob, involving use of infantry, machine guns, auto rifles, combat and reconnaissance patrols, sentries, etc., as well as military police and intelligence details operating with the city and county police officials. In addition, the Duval County armory was guarded at this time. It was perhaps fortunate that this trouble occurred during the time of the camp of instruction. This afforded the troops most excellent training, not only as to the disposition of troops, disposition of machine guns, transportation, guard duty, supply of outposts, etc., but it undoubtedly prevented a lynching and perhaps a race riot in Jacksonville. The guard of the Duval County jail was gradually reduced, relief being made morning and evening so that no one unit suffered a loss of time from its camp instruction. The infantry was taken from the Guard Company and each day at the jail intensive training was given on interior and exterior guard duty. The most striking, and one of the most pleasing features of the entire maneuver, was the spirit shown by the units and by the men. They were all most anxious and willing to serve. Discipline about the jail was excellent. All of the units made a most favorable impression on the officials as well as the citizens of Jacksonville. A great many complimentary remarks were heard. The whole incident will be beneficial to the National Guard in directing public opinion to the value of the guard. Already evidences of greater public interest and public co-operation are seen.

14. Because of the fact that Infantry Drill Regulation (Prov. 1919), contains no formation for a regiment as organized at present, the regiment was formed for parade and review as shown in attached blue print, marked Exhibit "E."

15. Summary. Summarized, that the men did receive excellent military training in addition to having a really good, clean time was evidenced by the appearance of the regiment in final review, by the appearance and conduct of the men in camp and in the city, by the work on the range and by the results shown on the drill grounds and in field work. The success of the camp is believed to be due to the following:

(a) The well arranged, intensive, well conducted programme of military training during each morning.

(b) Two battalions firing each afternoon on the range; one battalion at athletics or games. No afternoon drills except parade or guard mount.

(c) Excellent food and careful medical and sanitary supervision of men, messes and quarters.

(d) No night work, plenty of liberty, rest and relaxation. That the men appreciated this is evidenced by the fact that there were practically no prisoners and but four summary court cases during the camp. Reports from our military police on duty in the city, city police of Jacksonville, and citizens shows that they were exceptionally well behaved and at all times presented a most creditable appearance.

(e) Strict but just military discipline and insistence on a constant high degree of military courtesy.

(g) Diplomatic and efficient work on the part of the Inspector-Instructor and his Sergeant-Instructors, his appreciation of the fact that guardsmen can be easier led than driven and that this can be done without molycoddling. Strict discipline, hard intensive work, but on the basis that the officers and men are intelligent human beings, ready and willing to serve, desiring only a square deal.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL.

State Arsenal, St. Augustine, December 15th, 1921.

From: The Regimental Machine Gun Officer.

To: The C. O. 154th Inf., Fla., N. G.

Subject: Report of Machine Gun Instructions, Camps of Instruction.

1. In compliance with letter from the Commanding Officer 154th Infantry, dated October 27th, 1921, the following report is submitted:

2. Details of eight officers and enlisted men from Companies "D," "H," and "M," reported at the school of instruction for machine gun training.

3. The course of instruction covering a period of four days was designed to develop instructors in machine gunnery and the work as outlined was carried out, with excellent results.

4. Co. "D," "H," and "M," the companies designated to receive machine gun training reported at Camp Joseph E. Johnston August 6th, 1921. The schedule outlined by the Instructor, Major Walter Moore, was followed at all times.

5. The facilities for 1000-in. and range firing at Camp Johnston were nil, after considerable delay a 1000-in. range and field screens were built that would answer temporarily.

6. The officers and enlisted personnel entered the training whole-heartedly and the progress they made was evidenced in report of Field Firing to the Commanding Officer, August 20th, 1921, and by the Reports of Efficiency by the Instructor.

Recommendations: It is recommended that a schedule for armory training be prepared which will be a continuation of the training outlined at this encampment. That a 1000-in. range be built for the use of the machine gun companies and the material for traversing screens be made part of the permanent equipment at the camp.

EXHIBIT B.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Nov. 1, 1921.

From: Capt. Geo. M. Coslick, Ord. Dept., Florida.

To: Commanding Officer, 154th Infantry, Florida National Guard.

Subject: Report.

1. The following is submitted in compliance with letter dated October 27, 1921, Headquarters 154th Infantry, Florida National Guard.

2. The entire personnel of the nine rifle companies fired the instruction and record practice as outlined in Course A, Rifle Marksman.

3. The Headquarters, Howitzer and Motor Transport Companies fired only a few men over the entire course. The balance of these companies did not complete the instruction course and took no part in Record Practice.

4. The Service and Machine Gun Companies did not participate in rifle practice.

5. About forty (40) men received a little instruction in the automatic rifle.

6. No pistol practice was held during this camp.

7. Number of men qualified as:

Experts	3
Sharpshooters	48
Marksmen	149

8. The practice was interrupted by rain and the Jacksonville riot call, making it difficult to carry on the work according to schedule.

9. Progress of target practice was considerably hampered by the fact that from 40 to 50 percent of the men firing had none or very little knowledge of the rifle and range work.

10. Lack of organization within the companies on the range was very evident.

11. It is recommended that pistol and automatic rifle practice be included in next years target practice schedule.

12. It is recommended that the following improvements on the State Rifle Range be made as they will increase the efficient and expeditious manner in which instruction in small arms may be accomplished during future camps of instruction:

1. That a substantial telephone system be installed.

2. That two more pit houses be constructed.

3. That, in the interest of safety, a concrete cap be placed on at least the 600-yard range butts.

4. That a road be constructed between the 600 and 1000-yard ranges.

5. That bridges be placed over all ditches on the right of 600-yard range.

6. That prior to next camp the range be put in A1 condition and properly equipped so that target practice may be carried on in an uninterrupted manner.

13. During the last camp the large majority of men showed a keen interest in rifle work. To increase this interest and create a greater enthusiasm among guardsmen and even civilians it behooves all concerned to thoroughly post themselves in the very fine sport of target shooting.

EXHIBIT C.

REPORT OF REGIMENTAL SURGEON 154TH INFANTRY, FLORIDA NATIONAL GUARD.

St. Augustine, Fla., October 29, 1921.

Personal Hygiene and Camp Sanitation were given the command in lectures; typhoid, small-pox and venereal prophylaxis were especially emphasized; immunization against typhoid and small-pox was commenced the first day of the school of instruction and by the last day of the camp of instruction 91% of the command had completed such immunization; intelligent and willing co-operation of the line officer and line non-commissioned officer with the medical department made this possible. Absences with leave, and sickness, account for the 9% uncompleted, efforts were made to have all uncompleted immunized men complete their vaccine after returning home.

During the first five days of the camp of instruction sick call was unusually and unnecessarily large, sick books from some companies persisted in being improperly filled out day after day, all this gradually corrected itself after explanations regarding the real purpose of sick call was brought to the attention of company officers and by the seventh day of the camp sick call was down to about 5% of the command; and remained about that percentage until the day before closing, when Cos. E and G with attached Q. M. C. men came down with an attack of acute ptomaine due undoubtedly to spoiled food served for morning mess; all cases were returned to duty within 18 hours. The very splendid work of the enlisted personnel of the Regimental Medical Detachment had a large amount to do with the quick return to duty of these ptomaine cases.

In the first days of the camp of instruction there were far too many cases of heat exhaustion, undoubtedly due to the excessive heat, the heavy training schedule during the worst heat of the day, and to rather poor water discipline; troops unaccustomed to open life, drill and skirmish, rifle fire, and fresh from the usual ease of a Floridian's summer life were quite too green and soft for the heavy schedule given them, in the opinion of the medical department.

Experience at this camp would dictate the advisability of having the following completed before attending camp in the future:

- (a) All typhoid and small-pox immunizations complete.
- (b) Water discipline thoroughly taught.
- (c) Company instructions on first aid—especially in reference to heat, and to care in change in diet.

(d) Company officers and non-commissioned officers thoroughly instructed in handling the sick book and its relation to the company morning report.

The sanitation of the camp appeared to be excellent, this was handled entirely by the State surgeon, accompanied daily by a detailed clerk from the Regimental Medical Detachment, personnel.

The Regimental Medical Detachment followed the training schedule, as laid down by the State Inspector and Instructor, to the letter, although at times it necessitated work into the night to complete the training schedule and the work of the detachment at the camp hospital.

The work of the detachment was handicapped at all times by not having their own mess and the patients in the hospital would have been better fed if a mess had been running at the hospital. It is suggested and recommended that a range and all kitchen facilities be provided for the hospital before another camp.

OFFICE OF SHERIFF DUVAL COUNTY.

Jacksonville, Florida, February 7th, 1922.

Col. C. P. Lovell,
The Adjutant General,
Saint Augustine, Florida.

Dear Sir:—I wish to express to you my thanks and the thanks of those connected with my office for your extreme kindness to us during the period that your loyal men were guarding the jail by reason of the incarceration of the negro Hamilton whom we had in jail charged with murder.

The men whom you delegated for this duty seemed each of them personally imbued with the spirit of protection to the citizenship of the county and also with the spirit of loyalty to their superior officers. Out of the great number of men detailed by your office there was no word of complaint and no act committed by them or any one of them that was not worthy of commendation. They were certainly a true and loyal bunch of men and there is no telling what might have happened had they not been men of this character.

Again thanking you and your excellent men, I beg to remain,

Very truly your friend,

R. E. MERRITT,
Sheriff of Duval County, Florida.

5. During the period of the camp, the competitors and other enlisted personnel were quartered and messed as a unit in what is known as "A" and "B" company barracks and mess hall. A personal inspection of quarters was made daily, and of the mess at each meal, by the undersigned and the medical officer. Conditions were found to be good in both places.

6. The shooting of the teams as a whole, was unsatisfactory, some of the competitors being men who had had very little experience with the service rifle, which tends to show a lack of interest on the part of company commanders in rifle work.

7. Recommendations. (a) That company commanders start work on their rifle teams and create an interest in them at their home stations and that they be required to signify their intentions to enter a team in the matches at least 30 days prior to the date the competitions are scheduled to open. (b) That the working details used in connection with these competitions be prorated among companies taking part in the competitions.

4. At noon, the Small Arms Firing School opened and continued until September 5th, 1921. The National Guard Team and the Civilian Team from Florida, were consolidated into one class, to which the undersigned and Captain Coslick were assigned as instructors. The work and practice at this school were very beneficial to both teams, the following men qualifying as instructors with the service rifle:

Captain Archibald J. Thomas.
 Captain Charles H. Holstlaw.
 1st Lieut. Clarence L. Nettles.
 2nd Lieut. Edward V. Garcia.
 Sgt. Joseph P. Sullivan.

 The President's Match.

Six of the enlisted men were entered as a team in the Enlisted Men's Team Match, and made a very creditable showing. This showing was good, but, again, lack of experience and unfavorable conditions became a factor that could not be overcome.

8. The team was quartered in tents, four men to the tent. Each man was supplied with a cot, a mattress, and plenty of blankets to make him comfortable. The mess conditions were very poor. The food was fairly well prepared, but the mess was unsanitary. The allowance was ample, such as it was; the water was poor; the medical officer at the camp considering the water responsible for the dysentery which was prevalent in the camp. The bathing facilities were inadequate, there being about fourteen (14) showers to take care of the competitors' camp, consisting of about 900 men.

During the National Rifle Association Matches, there were very few practice targets, due to the fact that the enlisted personnel was limited and all the men available were handling the targets for the National Rifle Association Matches.

Upon arrival at Camp Perry, the undersigned officer took up the question of the officers mess with Captain Harlem Muma, the Camp Assignment Officer, and was informed that National Guard Officers were ineligible for the officer's mess, that being for regular army officers only. This discrimination was then taken up with Major George R. Harrison, officer in charge of National Guard affairs at Camp Perry. On August 31st, a memorandum to National Guard officers partially corrected this discrimination inasmuch as it invited National Guard field officers and officers who had their families with them, to join the officers' mess. None of the officers of the Florida National Guard team joined this mess.

9. Recommendations. (a) That the future National match teams be equipped with at least one high-grade telescope and that each man be equipped with a micrometer.

(b) That company officers be instructed to inform their men of the possibilities of shooting on the State team and make it possible for men who wish to try for the team to shoot on their home ranges as often as possible. Each man who is chosen for a team member should have at least six months training on the range.

(c) That the condition of the mess, water and bathing facilities, be taken up with the proper authorities, with a view to having corrections made.

(d) That the apparent discrimination against National Guard officers be taken up with the proper authorities, with a view of determining who was responsible for this discrimination.

FLORIDA CIVILIAN RIFLE TEAM, NATIONAL MATCHES, 1921.

Camp Perry, Ohio, October 30th, 1921.

From: Sterling E. Smith, Captain, Florida Civilian Team, 1921

To: Charles P. Lovell, Adjutant General, State of Florida.

Subject: Report of Performances of Team at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Arriving at Camp Perry, Ohio, 9:00 a. m., the morning of August 27th, and after receiving our assignment of quarters was informed that breakfast was ready for all team members. After drawing our quartermaster goods and ordnance we were then assigned instructors, it being our good fortune to have a very capable one, Major Chester H. Wilson, he giving us all the new and improved positions and sighting lectures as used at Camp Benning. All members attended the lectures given by Col. Brookhart, every evening, also Col. Muma. The second day we were presented to the range for actual shooting and position schooling, after five days of practice the N. R. A. matches began, then came the National individual in which every man on the Florida team qualified as expert riflemen, but regret to say four of them failed to repeat their good score in the National match, however, considering there was 73 teams entered 26th place is by no means bad.

In behalf of the executives of the National match we heartily extend to them our congratulations as they left nothing undone to make our stay there pleasant and comfortable. It has been my pleasure to attend three of these matches and I must confess this one certainly was run in a true sportsmanlike manner.

It was common talk every day on the range that the next National match would be held in Florida, and this comment was with much favor; there is only one objective to its coming, "Targets," and I would recommend that steps be taken to have no less than 300 targets on the Camp Johnston range, also recommend that a committee be present at the meeting which the final decision is made, this meeting is held sometime in January. Trusting that the above recommendations will meet with your approval and if I can assist you I am at your command.

On the sheet attached you will find the performances of the team from start to finish excepting have omitted the N. R. A. scores which would probably be of no interest to you, inasmuch as they are not ones to boast of.

Again thanking you for my appointment as captain of the Florida Civilian Team and trusting that the following scores will come up to your expectations.

With kindest personal regards.

Very sincerely,

STERLING E. SMITH.

REVIEW OF THE NATIONAL RIFLE MATCHES 1921 AND PERFORMANCE OF JACKSONVILLE RIFLE CLUB MEMBERS.

(By a Member of the Above Team)

This review of the National matches of 1921 at Camp Perry, Ohio, has been prepared in detail by a well known member and will give many interesting details. This is but the first installment and continuation of same is promised for succeeding issues until the full programme is covered.

NATIONAL MATCHES.

The opening of the National matches, found all members of the Florida Civilian Rifle Team, with exception of Coach Snow, and Bryson, well seasoned with a weeks' practice, and somewhat hardened into the game.

Coach Snow, and Bryson, arrived at camp on Sunday, September 4th, and the matches opened on the 6th with the "Auto-Ordinance" as the first offering of a series of 37 for the Springfield.

Two Jacksonville Rifle Club members entered this, as the course was a hard one, 10 shots for record, in one minute, on target "D" 500 yds. rapid fire, unless a man had his rifle sighted in, and knew it was right, he had no show for any score.

No.1—

Dow 42 x 50
L'Engle 36 x 50

To show how good the scores were in this match, there were 4 scores of 50 x 50, 13 scores of 49 x 50, 16 scores of 48 x 50, 29 scores of 47 x 50, 14 scores of 46 x 50 only in the money, a total of 77 prices.

Total entries, 570; total prizes, 77.

As will be seen from the above, only about one-third of the 46 scores got in the money, and the Florida City Team did not land a place, but did at least try.

THE SIGMUND EISNER MATCH.

No. 2.—This was 2-sighters and 10 for record at 200 yds. kneeling, and the result is here.

McLeod	47 x 50
Bryson	46 x 50
Farrow	45 x 50
Dow	44 x 50
Smith	42 x 50
Couch	41 x 50

Entries, 540; prizes, 135. McLeod, our high man, 108th place.

There were: 1 score of 50 x 50, 16 scores of 49 x 50, 38 scores of 48 x 50, 59 scores of 47 x 50, 21 scores of 46 x 50.

NATIONAL MATCHES.

No. 3.—The third match was a popular one with long ranges, that require steady holding, and a good knowledge of the shooting game, and 10 members entered this match.

Entries, 768; prizes, 192.

Jacksonville Rifle Club got two men on the prize list.

No. 4.—The fourth match, at 100 yds. 2 sighters and 10 shots for record.

The Remington match proved a difficult one for Florida civilians, not a man got on the prize list.

McLeod	46 x 50
Murray	44 x 50
Dow	41 x 50
Bryson	39 x 50
Smith	37 x 50

There were 10 scores of 50 x 50 plus, 3 scores of 50 x 50, 27 scores of 49 x 50, 46 scores of 48 x 50, 38 scores of 47 x 50, and only 36 scores of 46 x 50 drew prizes.

Entries, 588; prizes, 147.

THE PETERS CARTRIDGE CO.'S MATCH.

No. 5—600 yds. 2 sighters and 10 for record, as only scores of 48 x 50 got prizes in this match, the Florida Civilian members did not ring the bell at all, but at least they tried, but most all of our men just got to going good at the end of 10 shots, as was in this case.

Dow	47 x 50
Smith	47 x 50
Murray	46 x 50
Bryson	45 x 50
McLeod	43 x 50

There were 22 scores of 50 x 50 plus, 3 scores of 50 x 50, 59 scores of 49 x 50, and only 61 scores of 48 x 50 got in prizes.

Total of 580 entries; 145 prizes.

The Members Match called for the same course as the Peters, 600 yds. 2 sighters and 10 for record.

The Florida Civilian Team succeeded in placing four men on the prize list, the best yet, and showed that the men were steady-ing down, and getting better results as a team.

Lynn	49 x 50
Smith	49 x 50
Murray	48 x 50
Dow	48 x 50
McLeod	46 x 50
Bryson	45 x 50
L'Engle	40 x 50

Lynn, 64th place; Smith, 74th place; Murray, 168th place; dow, 194th place; McLeod, X.

There were 32 scores of 50 x 50 plus, 10 scores of 50 x 50, 78 scores of 49 x 50, 83 scores by 48 x 50.

Entries, 821; prizes, 204.

Troops, How Ordered Out. When an invasion of or insurrection in the State is made or threatened, or whenever there exists a riot, mob, unlawful assembly, breach of the peace or resistance to the execution of the laws of the State, or imminent danger thereof, and the civil authorities are unable to suppress the same, it shall be the duty of the Commander-in-Chief, or in case he cannot be reached and the emergency will not permit of awaiting his orders, it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General to issue an order to the officer in command of the body of troops best suited for the service for which troops are called, commanding him to proceed with the troops under him, or as many thereof as may be necessary, with all possible promptness, to suppress the same. In any case where neither the Commander-in-Chief nor the Adjutant General can be reached, and the exigency of the occasion shall require it, the County Judge of any county where there may exist a riot, mob, unlawful assembly, breach of the peace or resistance to the execution of the laws of the State, or imminent danger thereof, and the civil authorities are unable to suppress the same, shall have the power and authority, and it shall be the duty of such County Judge, upon the application of the sheriff or the mayor of any city or town in said county, to issue an order to the officer in command of any company, or body of troops, in such county, commanding him to proceed with the troops under him, or as many thereof as may be necessary, with all possible promptness to suppress the same.

2. The following instructions are announced and will hereafter govern the calling out of troops in aid of civil authorities:

An order placing troops on duty for the purpose of aiding the civil authorities will be directed to the commanding officer of the post where the most suitable troops are located. As a rule the order will designate the exact force to be employed and when the force so designated as smaller than the total strength of the garrison, the post commander will transmit the order to the commanding officer of the organization designated for duty and will require the same to be promptly executed; when an order does not designate the force to be employed, the post commander should, if practicable, confer with the civil authorities or by other means acquaint himself with the situation, being governed in calling out of troops by the exigencies of the case and using only such number of troops as seem necessary to accomplish the purposes for which their services are required. Where only one company is employed, field and staff officers will not be placed on duty without special authority.

3. When troops are called out by the County Judge in an emergency situation, the officer receiving such a call will immediately acquaint himself with the situation and order out such number of troops as he may think necessary to meet the emergency. As soon thereafter as possible he will report direct to the office of the Adjutant General—either by telegram or other quickest available means of communication—his action and a brief statement of the causes upon which the call for troops was based.

4. Troops should not be kept on duty longer than is absolutely necessary to accomplish the purpose for which they were called out.

When troops are employed to protect prisoners, the commanding officer should at once suggest to the sheriff or other civil officer having them in charge that he apply to the proper authority for permission to move them to a point of safety, and this should be done with as little delay as possible. Where only a small guard is required, troops will not ordinarily be employed for this purpose as such service can be rendered by deputy sheriffs or other police officers. Troops will not be used in any case where the civil authorities can properly handle the situation. Commanding officers will always bear in mind that they are acting in aid of the civil authorities and in all cases will endeavor to secure written instructions from the civil authorities as to what action is desired.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 16.

The following letter from the Honorable Cary A. Hardee, Governor of Florida, and Commander-in-Chief of the Florida National Guard, is published to the troops:

STATE OF FLORIDA.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

• Tallahassee, August 24, 1921.

General Charles P. Lovell,
St. Augustine, Florida.

Dear General Lovell:

I cannot let the opportunity pass without saying a word regarding my visit to the National Guard Encampment and my review of the Guard on the nineteenth instant. I was greatly pleased with the personnel of the officers and enlisted men.

Among the members of the Guard, I found many of the State's most prominent and patriotic young men and there is no doubt but what we have included in the Guard, the highest type of the State's citizenship.

The encampment was a great success; the spirit of the men was fine and I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation of them, their loyalty, and their patriotic regard for the preservation of the State's highest interests.

As Chief Executive, it is comforting to know that the State has such a force which would readily respond should domestic trouble ensue and which would likewise hear the call of duty should the interests of their country be seriously threatened. My heart is with the officers and men of the Guard. I shall, during my administration, encourage and co-operate with them in every legitimate manner. Will you not express to the various units throughout the State, my sincere appreciation of their loyal service.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) CARY A. HARDEE,

Governor.

This letter will be greatly appreciated by the troops, not only because it expresses their Commander-in-Chief's approval of their efforts, but because it shows his interest in them. It also expresses the opinions of all the officers who had the opportunity to see the work accomplished at the Four-Day School and the Fifteen-Day Camp of Instruction.

The school and camp were unquestionably, the best administered, the best instructed, and the best disciplined camps the Adjutant General has seen during his twenty years experience with the National Guard.

The officers and men have every reason to be proud of the Florida National Guard, and if in the future, the work measures up to the high standard that has been set during the short time that the Guard has been organized, we can point to our organization as the best in the United States.

This Order will be read to the organizations at the first assembly after the receipt of same, and will be posted on the Bulletin Boards.
